The Frozen Garden

The garden courtyard — replace with your own photography before launch.

THE PLACE

A village resort built around stillness.

The Frozen Garden

just a garden, a fire, and time.

45 minutes from the city edge
Close enough for a weekend, far enough to feel like it isn't.

Working village setting
Ponds, paddy and native gardens — kept as they are, not staged.

Slow food, local kitchen
Meals cooked to order from what's in season nearby.

WHERE TO STAY

Three ways to settle in.

Each room type opens onto the garden or the pond. Rates shown are indicative for winter 2026 — final tariffs are confirmed at booking.

GARDEN FACING

MOST SPACIOUS

The Frozen Garden

A compact standalone cottage opening straight onto the garden beds. Best for couples and solo stays.

Two-room villa with a private sit-out, built for families or two couples travelling together.

POND FACING

Bloom Suite

Our quietest room, set back near the pond with a private deck for morning tea.

₹5,600 / night
